

TODAY ME, TOMORROW YOU: Hailie Selassie, 1936

MNN. May 30, 2009. Rastafarians highly regard Selassie for this comment. In 1936 the African nation of Ethiopia was invaded by Italy when it was ruled by Moussellini. Selassie went to the League of Nations to ask for help. They refused and offered him asylum in Britain. Something strange is being played out against the Mohawks at the Akwesane border. We don't want guns there. The U.S. and Canada want us to submit to their will because we are getting in the way of their plans.

Who are the guns in the hands of the border guards going to be pointed at? Who is putting the Americans into a pressure cooker, to watch out for terrorists and to keep worrying about a dangerous world? Who is pushing them into having no choice but to create a global fascist empire for their own protection? It's the international bankers who are engineering the economic collapse and depression to bring the dollar down to zero. The U.S. as it stands today is going to be destroyed. The Anglo-American empire will fall so that Fortress America can be set up and run by a few criminal war lords.

The U.S. plans to own Canada and Mexico.

The U.S. has to rely on food, oil and commodity imports. They are short of resources, water being a main one. They won't do low paying jobs. A food shortage has been created blaming it on drought and money issues. The oil deficit is chronic. Wheat, beef and lumber are being stockpiled. Hoarding is going on everywhere mostly by the military. The U.S. is becoming overrun with homeless people and empty boarded up houses. The dollar will eventually crash.

Isolation, paranoia and xenophobia are running amok. U.S. citizens are being made to fear strangers and aliens. Foreigners are being kicked out [forgetting they are all immigrants themselves]. They think they see terrorism everywhere. People are being put into unfounded suspicion, utter despair and rage that can lead to mob violence and martial law. The police state is the final goal.

Walls have been built around them in the south manned by guards carrying guns and high security towers. In the north the same plans are in motion. We thought at first it was to harass non-U.S. citizens. It's starting to look more like the Americans themselves might be the primary victims.

For global government the concept of U.S. citizenship will be destroyed to bring in world electronic citizenship. Enhanced drivers licenses will facilitate workers travelling the NAFTA super highway corridor throughout Great Turtle Island without ever getting off it. The army can move quickly to anywhere they're needed.

Many unemployed soldiers and laid-off auto workers have nowhere to turn. A pool of millions has been made available to the military complex. Many will wear uniforms.

To save themselves, the U.S. is being told they have to conquer the world. They have the weapons, manpower and the blueprint. They are told in effect, "We can conquer the world and take everything from everybody, under the right of discovery".

A charismatic leader is making the pronouncements. His brown skin is part of the deception. He tells them the U.S. destiny is to rule the world.

The propaganda is that it is becoming dangerous for Americans to travel. Armed border guards between peaceful nations has a psychological effect. Americans are already being chased out of Mexico by fights between drug lords and threats of swine flu. Guns are going to be pointed at the people coming from the U.S. into Canada.

The U.S. made a new policy to pursue terrorists and criminals in Mexico and Canada. They hope that soon Canada and Mexico will be protectorates of the U.S., similar to the Philipines.

This is the old Hitler scheme to build Fortress Europe. After WWI Germany was surrounded by real or imagined enemies. They had to give up all their weapons and were under the control of foreign nations. They had to pay heavy reparations to French, British, Americans and Russians. They were starving due to embargoes. Soldiers were unemployed. The German mark was down to zero. They had no colonies and no natural resources. Fear was put into their minds. They were terrified of being strangled to death by their enemies. Hitler told them that to survive they had to overpower the world. They had to control those around them so as not to be hemmed in. Their scapegoats were the Jews.

U.S. citizens are being conditioned to blame the Indigenous of Canada and Mexico for all their troubles. They want our resources for nothing and for us to be the slaves who will extract it for them.

The international elite engineered the gun issue at the border. They told Canada to put guns in the hands of the border guards to put fear into Americans. Mexico is their enemy. The U.S. citizens are being lead to believe that Canada is becoming their enemy too. China put up their wall to keep out the Mongol hordes. The Romans put the wall between Scotland and England to keep out the highlanders. The Jews are building a wall around Palestine for the same reason. Russians put up the Berlin wall to create the impression that there was an enemy on the other side threatening to get in and hurt them.

When a nation feels threatened, they build a wall. It's a psychological barrier. It's dangerous.

U.S. and Canada are angry and alarmed at us for stopping the guns at the border. They are going to be pointed basically at Americans. Are Americans being contained to prepare for racial and class chaos coming to their homes soon?

AKWESASNE UNITY MARCH TODAY - MOHAWKS FREE INDIGENOUS AT BORDER

March Sat. May 30 2009. Contact Chief Nona Benedict 613-551-5421 613-938-8145 nbenedict@akwesasne.ca , go to www.akwesasne.ca . Chief Wesley Benedict 613-551-2573; Larry King 613-551-1930; Chief Joe Lazore 613-551-5292. Meet at 10:30 am the tent, Canada Customs cross roads on Cornwall Island. March from U.S. into Canada starts at noon.

MNN. May 30, 2009. The Mohawk Council of Akwesasne passed resolution #318 on February 28, 2008 forbidding firearms to be carried by Canada Border Services Agents CBSA on the territory of Akwesasne. That's the law. No guns. They also demanded a commission of inquiry and an emergency meeting with the Minister of Public Safety and other ministers and senior officials no later than April 1, 2008. Canada refuses to discuss this.

On Friday May 29 2009 the council and the people walked over to the border and served these documents on the agents. Inside the building were four young Indigenous guys from Oklahoma who were in Akwesasne for a boxing tournament. They said, "They pulled us over and we don't know why". They could have been thrown in jail and held for 30 days for no reason. The building became full of Mohawks who freed our Oklahoma brothers.

Prime Minister Stephen Harper must have been planning to wait us out and put guns in the hands of his agents on Monday, June 1. By the time we got our act together, it would be too late to do anything. Instead on May 28th we served a complaint to the UN Security Council and the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, 8th Session. They promised to send delegates to Akwesasne to observe and report on Canada's plot to violate our human rights and commit ethnic cleansing.

Harper acts like Indigenous people should kiss his feet and that he will set the agenda. Real diplomacy means both sides work toward an agreement that is beneficial to all. It's not where Indigenous get nothing and the school yard bully gets everything. We can work out an agreement peacefully no matter how long it takes. Our bargaining position is that right always wins in the end.

> From the day the European ruffians landed on our shores they have continuously mistreated us. They seem determined to continue these atrocities. They tell us, "Take it or leave it". We say "no". We the Rotino'shonni:onwe of Great Turtle Island have the will of the people behind us.

Canada, the U.S. and all these occupiers in the western hemisphere should be brought before a court to be tried for the atrocities and war crimes they have committed against humanity. Harper made an apology over the crimes against our people and children who were put into colonial concentrations camps called government residential schools. At the same he planned to arm people to finish the job.

Canada aspires to militarize the border and turn its colony into an armed camp. The Indigenous refuse to harbor a police state on Great Turtle Island. Arming colonial agents is not for world security. It's for the interests of a few elite war lords who want to set up a global totalitarian regime. They want to steal everything from us. They wrongly think money and violence will win. The world has to know that Canada is a lie.

We must hang onto our children's birthright. It is not criminal for us to survive and defend ourselves and our freedom.

Canada negotiates by trying to hit us over the head with a hammer. We Iroquois have thousands of years of experience in very complex diplomacy. We negotiated treaties with many nations on Great Turtle Island and beyond that stand to this day. According to our alliances, when anyone is dealing with Mohawks, they are dealing with all Indigenous people. We are one blood. We stand together as brothers and sisters.

MNN: UN ASKED TO STOP GUNS AT AKWESASNE BORDER
May 28, 2009

Skarohreh Doug Anderson of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy presented a request to the Secretary of the UN Security Council at 2:58 pm today. Supporters are asked to call 212-963-5258 to ask the UN to send officials to Akwesasne to make peace and to avoid violence from government agents. Kenneth Deer of Kahnawake raised the issue of guns at Akwesasne with the Permanent Forum on Indigenous People. They promised to send some delegates to Akwesasne. A Canadian delegate tried to dissuade any action by the UN. She is helping Prime Minister Harper to stonewall the Indigenous people.

“To the SECRETARY, SECURITY COUNCIL, UNITED NATIONS, UN Plaza, New York City

“A treaty was signed between Britain and the U.S., known as the Jay Treaty of 1794. It was to be an undefended border between Canada and the U.S. The purpose was to bring peace between two warring countries. The two parties have remained peaceful since the War of 1812.

“Canada has always dealt with the Indigenous nations by sending RCMP to speak peacefully with us to avoid belligerence. Historically there was little warfare because guns were not used as they are in the U.S. The U.S. stole the West by killing our people. They almost annihilated us. Sitting Bull left for Canada because he knew he would be safe.

“Canada is trying to imitate the U.S. tactic of using threats in their relationship with us. Canada must not start using shot gun diplomacy like the U.S. whose policy of unilateral violence, threatening and murdering people is engulfing the world.

“Foreigners cannot come into our community with guns. They must consult us according to international law standards. A majority of all our people must give our consent. This has never happened. They have no legal right to set up an armed camp in the midst of the populous Haudenosaunee community of Akwesasne [at the convergence of Ontario, Quebec and New York State].

“On June 1 the Canada Border Services Agency guards will try to carry 9mm Berettas, which are meant to kill people. The UN must stop this attempt at ethnic cleansing at Akwesasne. Canada at the behest of the U.S. is trying to commit genocide on us, the real people of mother earth.

“The reasonable decision of the Haudenosaunee, our friends and supporters, is that there should be no guns anywhere on the Canada-U.S. border on the Canadian side. Canada is setting a precedent that any visitor arriving will have the barrel of a gun in their faces, so to say. We want the border station to be removed from the middle of Akwesasne.

“We know the power they presently exercise without the guns. They ridicule and demean us as we come through the border. They use their power of intimidation to pull us into their building away from the protective eyes of our friends and relatives. We have no choice but to cross many times a day to carry on our normal lives. The violence will always be directed at us and not at them. We want peace. These supposed peace officers are acting like war zone combatants. What a contradictory message Canada sends out to the world.

“The Jay Treaty has always been a sign to our people that we can cross that border without fear. Kanento Diabo, Clinton Richard and many others made sure that it was always a border of peace. We Mohawks are trying to bring back harmony between parties. Dekanawida urged the warring parties to throw all the weapons down and bury them.

In the 1960s and 70s some Americans did not want to become soldiers, carry guns and shoot people. They came to Canada. They were called draft dodgers. Many prospered and became fond of Canada because it was peace loving and a peacekeeping society. Today Prime Minister Stephen Harper and his cohorts want to change Canada into a petite war monger. They want the people to get used to guns, violence and murder just like the U.S.

Today Kenneth Deer of Kahnawake spoke about Canadian aggression towards us to the UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, 8th Session. He urged the panel to become involved immediately. Victoria Tauli-Corpuz and Tonya Gonella Frichner, panel members, promised they would send a delegation to Akwesasne to observe and report. They were asked to look at the human rights aspect and to follow it up with the Security Council. Cathie Fournier [613-992-0386] of the Canadian government tried her best to downplay it, by saying, “This forum has no teeth to bite” [just gums!]. She promptly called Ottawa.

Canadians and Americans, beware. You could be next. We need your support.

URGENT!

THERE WILL BE NO GUNS! "YOU ARE ON INDIAN LAND" - 1968 FILM ABOUT AKWESASNE BORDER BLOCKADE – June 1 CBSA guards will try to carry 9mm Berettas

MNN. May 27, 2009. "If the colony of Canada wants to arm their border guards, then move it out of our community", is the reasonable decision of Mohawks and our friends and supporters.

It was a bitterly cold day on December 20, 1968. Over 500 Mohawks stood at the Canada Customs and blocked the international bridge on Cornwall Island in the St. Lawrence River. This border crossing is right in the middle of the populous Haudenosanne community of Akwesasne [at the convergence of Ontario, Quebec and New York State]. This 41 year old film records the violations of our sovereignty which continue to this day. The people who took part in the 1968 resistance are just a little older. We have never lost our spirit. We always kept up our vigilance over colonial Canada's abuse of power and our rights.

At Akwesasne there are escalating brutal attacks by the CBSA Canada Border Services Agents. These maniacs constantly racially profile and provoke us. We have to cross many times a day to carry on our normal lives. On June 1 2009 these goons will try to carry 9 mm Beretta guns. They could instigate violence and death. This border crossing must be removed. We object to putting deadly guns in the hands of these openly racist border guards. <http://intercontinentalcry.org/you-are-on-indian-land/>

Guns are for killing people. We would appreciate your help by signing the following petition! <http://www.ipetitions.com/petition/NoGunsForCBSA/index.html>

The Mohawks are asking for worldwide support. On May 26th Cornwall city council passed a resolution that no guns should be given to the CBSA guards. They are peace officers, not war zone combatants. Prime Minister Stephen Harper wants to militarize the border. The RCMP must complete a 16 week firearms course. Border guards are only required to take a 3 week course.

GLOBAL MIND CONTROL TYRANNY – FAKE RELIGIONS, NEW AGE & CORPORATISTS SNATCHING BASIC NATURE

MNN. May 22, 2009. There are several types of mind control: cults, phony religions and off-the-wall therapies. A new world religion is being invented to force on everybody. It's a mishmash of legitimate religious movements, new age psychobabble and a sprinkling of so-called traditional ideologies. We are all supposed to be drawn in to be controlled by a small group of cult leaders.

Their mission statement to the masses is that the end justifies the means to bring about universal peace, harmony and love. Psychological coercion through manufactured religion is part of setting up a worldwide totalitarian society.

At one time several elite factions fought each other to rule the world. Now they work together. The cultist leaders are secret, self-appointed, dogmatic, messianic and not democratically accountable. They want to whack everybody into enslavement. "The easier to control you, my dear!"

Is the 11th Century Inquisition being resurrected? This was a time when critics of the politicians controlled by the Catholic Church killed off millions who didn't agree with them? Will the military brutalize objectors and those not devoted enough to these newly constructed universal beliefs? Where's the holy land this time? Everywhere there's oil and other valuable resources! www.gotquestions.org

Manitou Foundation in Colorado run by Maurice Strong uses cult principles to develop the new world religion and to implement it. These same maneuvers underlie the corporate world, campuses, religions, medical and other professions, prisons and advertising campaigns. President Obama's speech writers use these same tactics all the time.

Crafters of mental tyranny go after the upper crust who become the mainstay of their hierarchy. They are indoctrinated into the new plan through powerful secret societies in ivy league universities. They are trained to run the new world order and the global mind control needed to sustain it. To keep their loyalty, cult leaders get something on each, usually of a sexual or more unsavory nature.

Worldwide we are being weakened by depravation, wars, diseases and various fears. We are deliberately being made vulnerable, confused, anxious, depressed and hurt to ripen us for the new world religion.

New world religions are narcissistic, quasi-therapeutic and eastern oriented. Strategies are humility and public confession to lower self-esteem; threats and guilt; no thinking; and critics are accused of siding with the devil. Some start hallucinating about having contact with extra terrestrials who give them orders.

Some manipulation techniques are love bombing which is giving love and then sudden disapproval, contradictions and verbal abuse. The altered state is brought on by hypnosis, trances, prolonged chanting, deprivation of privacy, sense of time, food and sleep. Other tactics to force conformity are overly strict rules, guilt, fear, no questions and tight rules on living, dressing, information, music, reading and the internet. Some cult leaders have sex with anyone, male, female or child, within their orbit under their control.

Individual reasoning powers have to be weakened so we can be broken down physically and mentally to become highly vulnerable to suggestions. It takes 3 days to two weeks to bring draftees into line. We are supposed to go through a sudden drastic personality change called "snapping". We will have difficulty reasoning, choosing or criticizing. The new world religion steps in and interprets our reality and reason for living. Then we can be put into intense robotic group thinks and then told what to do.

Followers who are no longer valuable are thrown to the wolves. Those wanting to leave will be threatened. The successful walkaways will have to hide. They will be hunted down, ostracized and disappeared for having too much inside information. They will suffer from withdrawal such as confusion, depression, disorientation, insomnia, amnesia, suicidal tendencies and violent emotional outbursts.

We are seen as human livestock that belong to the few. The whole world is their farm, with electronic dog collars and brain chips called licenses. Schools are training children to love the farm. The leaders don't want us to be free who can manage our own lives. Today's brutality is staged for us to get used to the idea that we must conform or else!

If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is. The new world religion promises faith, safety and prosperity. They are pyramid authoritarian regimes, using deception to recruit and maintain themselves. Since we are half starved, blinded and abused, we are being forced into having no choice but to embrace it.

Who will try and convict those opposed to this new dogma? It could be a charismatic leader that everybody will have to bow down to. It will be a universal concoction staffed by priests or faith keepers of the new world order. Their job will be to seduce, terrify and wean us away from our real custodial relationship with the natural world and each other. Those questioning their newly formed orthodox doctrines will be tortured. Concentration camps will hold critics before they are shipped to parts of the world with grotesque punishments and no human or civil rights.

The Iroquois Confederacy could be deemed as terrorists for our efforts to assert our inherent sovereignty. Since everybody will unilaterally become an international person, we could be taken to The Hague and charged with war crimes. We're being brainwashed into becoming universal humans for their ends. Wiretaps, surveillance and imprisonment will be justified under new international security laws.

Unethical double standards have to be pointed out. Deprogramming requires critical thinking, seeing the contradictions and twisted ideology. Self-reflection and will power break down the control pyramid. We need truthful information so we can clear our minds of the big lies that have been constantly fed to us worldwide. We have to relearn how to think and control our will. Group consensus gives each a voice to fully discuss issues before making a decision. Tight family relationships keep us from being isolated and victimized.

Sending us to the Gulag [Stalin's Soviet prison] is an old threat. We ask too many questions. They think they have to control our minds. The supposed world rulers of the masses will call their critics crazy and paranoid. Watch out for anyone who calls up your friends and tells them you have had a mental breakdown!

AMERICAN PSYCHOS TRYING TO PERVADE THE WORLD

MNN. May 16, 2009. A psychopath is chronically immoral and anti-social, covered by a mask of sanity and always searching for victims. U.S. movers and shakers who are trying to gain control of the world come from an elite background. Many go to the northeastern U.S. schools like Harvard, Princeton and Yale. They get jobs on Wall Street in Manhattan and Washington DC. By day they work in top jobs. They make their way up into behind-the-scenes positions where they carry out the will of those who are trying to set up the new world order system. This eventually includes forays into brutal violence and blood lust against defenseless unarmed people. Their bizarre initiations include killing innocent people at random. The end game is total control.

Psychopaths have to look normal to cover up their vile nature and training. They have no morals or ethics which frees them to carry out genocide, starvation, spreading pandemics and desecrating the environment. When they are confronted with their crimes, they maintain a studied blandness.

Psychopaths are possessive, greedy, have no deep feelings, no ties and are manipulators. They have no conscience. They start out with small simple crimes. This is not enough. They graduate to mass murder. It's like a mad dog that has eaten human flesh. He stepped over the line and therefore has to be shot.

Psychopaths like to talk about their activities, such as depopulating the world, creating one world government and one world religion, with them running it. There is no one world order without one world religion!

Psychopaths want the world to know how vicious and sadistic they are to instill fear. Because they think the agenda is so advanced they now openly show their contempt for humanity. Henry Kissinger doesn't mind being credited with the policy to rid the world of "useless eaters". Prince Philip boasts he wants to be reincarnated as a virus to kill off most of the people of the world. Maurice Strong of the Manitou Foundation, who is creating a one world religion, has close ties with both these men. It's a cabal!

It takes one to know one. To carry out these atrocities, recruiters carefully select psycho enforcers for their lack of empathy.

What happened to the Hippocratic oath? Psychologists and medical personnel sat next to the Iraqi victims as they were being tortured by U.S. soldiers and specialists. In Abu Graib Prison the U.S. soldiers got a kick out of raping little boys, torturing and killing the prisoners. They even took pictures and films as souvenirs. [Did Cheney and Bush get their jollies looking at them?]

The U.S. mistakenly thinks it still has a good reputation as humanitarians. At one time no one believed they could be such monsters. To most it is so heinous the mind cannot wrap itself around it.

The attacks by the Canada Border Services Agency guards CBSA at Cornwall Ontario are getting progressively more vicious. These are a few of hundreds of recent assaults. Last June 2008 they grabbed two grandmothers and beat them. One had a heart attack.

A mother of 7 was taken out to the parking lot and accosted by five CBSA guards. They tried to rape her. She fought them off. They charged her with assault. This case is still in court.

One young pregnant mother was put under the x-ray machine for commercial tractor trailers. She lost the baby and had another that had some rare medical problems.

Three young children were taken inside the customs building for hours and questioned. They were ages 18 months, 3 and 4. They would not let the parents communicate with them.

The swarming technique being used by CBSA agents is when five or six surround a victim like a shark feeding frenzy. A superior on a cell phone stands nearby and instructs them. They have complete confidence that their superiors will support them, right up to the president and prime minister's offices. Now these goons want guns in their hands!

In the 1997 Somalia Inquiry Report, Canadian soldiers on a peacekeeping mission had made bets. The first one to kill a Somalian would get a bottle of wine. We see this same mentality at the border crossings, except that the Indigenous will be the targets. The border guards are the commandos who will try to hunt us down.

MNN is publicizing CBSA routine brutality and racism because mainstream media won't. The guards seem to be getting a kick out of the publicity in Indian country. It's part of their psychopathology.

Canada's Prime Minister, Stephen Harper, looks like the controlling maniac with an appetite for the jugular. He did not go to Harvard but has the U.S. cowboy mentality.

These psychopaths want control no matter what. Their sadism trickles down from the top to the rank and file. Harper shows that "studied" placid expression. He is surrounded by people who are more than willing to carry out "the agenda". Soon they will be marching around in military attire saluting him.

American psychopaths are exporting their depravity from what was formerly called the School of the Americas in Fort Benning Georgia. Death squads were trained there to be adjuncts to the dictators that the U.S. had installed in South America. It is now called the Western Hemisphere Institute for Security Cooperation which still contravenes the Geneva Conventions.

The U.S. is the new Babylon, a world super power that takes whatever it wants from anywhere. They don't have the economic superiority, but do have the most lethal military.

President Obama is following the Bush agenda. Some change, eh! Are we surprised? What is the public's reaction? Denial and complacency! They pretend to misunderstand. When confronted these maniacs are trained to smile, just like any serial killer.

NO TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION – TIME FOR GREAT TURTLE ISLAND TEA PARTY – OI' US Termination Policy Rears Ugly Head in Canada

MNN. May 11, 2009. Ontario MPP Christine Elliott, the wife of federal Minister of Finance, Jim Flaherty, started a campaign on the risks of smoking cigarettes made by Indigenous. Health Canada said that Indigenous cigarettes are worse for human health than cigarettes made by Big Tobacco, and that's absurd!

Big Tobacco won't tell anybody what they put into their cigarettes. In the U.S. Philip Morris put in ammonia so nicotine could go to the brain faster and make it more addictive. [yessmokes.com] The patent for fire safe cigarette paper made with more carcinogens is owned by Phillip Morris. Most Indigenous business people use basic tobacco. Poisons and toxins cost money.

Why doesn't Elliott scare smokers off all cigarettes? It's a legal business for Big Tobacco and so it is for Indigenous. Maybe they're backing her campaign to become leader of the Ontario Progressive Conservative Party.

Is Elliot going to go back to old sales pitches like warding off emphysema and TB, losing weight and coping with depression? In movies smoking represents rebelliousness, defiance, empowerment, low class, manhood, outdoor ruggedness, fun, partying, alcohol drinking, socializing and cheating authority and not getting caught. The Marlborough Man died of lung cancer from smoking. Virginia slims was marketed to little girls to be thin. Beautiful women dragging on a cig induces kids to smoke. It's so cool!

The main argument for cutting out competition and giving Big Tobacco a monopoly has to do with taxes and lawsuits.

In 1773, Britain's Dutch East India Company had large stocks of tea that could not be sold. It was on the verge of bankruptcy. To save it, the government passed the 1773 Tea Act to give the company a monopoly to export tea directly to the colonies without paying taxes. The company could undersell American merchants and monopolize the trade. Americans started to smuggle and sell tea at cheaper prices.

The East India Company granted franchises to co-operative American merchants. Britain planned to do this with other commodities. Those excluded got mad. They questioned whether Britain had a right to tax the colonies as they did not elect members to Parliament. It was "taxation without representation". The colonists boycotted Britain and drank smuggled tea. Britain tried unsuccessfully to undercut the smugglers.

The colonists hatched a plan to stop the East India Company from landing its tea in colonial ports. East India company agents were forced to resign. Tea was either returned to England or warehoused. A huge surplus accumulated. Britain did not drop the tax or its purported right to govern the colonies. The taxes Britain collected were used to pay colonial governors and judges to keep them dependant on the British, like today's band and tribal councils.

In Boston, the agents wouldn't resign. The royal governor and his men decided to land the tea anyway. Three ships made it into the harbor. On December 16, 1773, three companies of fifty men each, dressed as Mohawk Rotiskenrakete, boarded the ships and dumped 600,000 pounds of tea into the harbor. Other ports followed.

The Coercive Act was passed to make Massachusetts pay damages. They refused. In 1774 the British closed down the port of Boston. This reduced the powers of self government. Traitorous British officers were tried. The guilty were quartered in the barns and empty houses of the colonists. This sparked the American Revolutionary War.

The colonists passed themselves off as Mohawks to make a point. Either they saw us as Indigenous and free people who couldn't be taxed by foreigners or colonists. Or they were trying blame us for the rebellion.

We are presently being pushed into poverty and starvation to force us to relinquish our non taxable status. We are sovereign caretakers of Great Turtle Island. We never voted to become U.S. or Canadian citizens. The colonists bully us: "Give us our cut or starve!" just like street gang enforcers. We can't get jobs anywhere. We have a right to survive by our traditional trade and commerce free of harassment.

In 2009 the British are trying to scapegoat us. Most Big Tobacco companies are headquartered in Great Britain. They still control the colonies of U.S. and Canada. We constantly resist these carpetbaggers.

Big Tobacco sell toxic cigarettes all over the world. They are being sued by governments for billions for causing deaths from cancer and other sicknesses. The media campaign against us is that Mohawks make bad cigarettes that cause cancer. So sue them! Big Tobacco makes cigarettes that are good for you.

This is how Big Tobacco will pay off their law suits. It's the old U.S. 1953 Termination Act scheme concocted by American tycoons through the Conservatives of Canada. In the 1990s Big Tobacco set up the businesses on our land. The number of cigarettes produced by us is greatly inflated. Arbitrary sums of $40 to $50 million in fines for "smuggling" are purportedly owed by us. The governments change the law so our land can be foreclosed and seized for fines owed to the government. An armed occupation force is brought into our communities to make it unlivable to scatter us. Our land is given to the federal or provincial governments who will hand it over to the politicians, their backers and real estate agencies for sale.

Canada, Quebec and Ontario have put arbitrary fines against us to seize our properties. Then they will try to sell it off to help pay off the fines of Big Tobacco, give some to the government and the middle men can pocket some themselves.

It's not what they want us to see. It's scapegoating. Put the pressure on us. The guns. The border. The cigarettes. No economy. Tear our families apart. While Big Tobacco in England keeps on rolling their smokes!

FORTY-ONE YEAR LEGACY OF MOHAWK RESISTANCE AT AKWESASNE BORDER – Next march on May 29, 2009.

MNN. May 109, 2009. Over 250 Mohawks marched on May 8, 2009, against guns and violence at the U.S.-Canada border. [link at end] Canada is militarizing all borders across Canada. Guards will carry Beretta 8 mm guns for a start on June 1, 2009. The safety of Mohawks and all border crossings in Canada are being jeopardized. The Akwesasne checkpoint is on a large island in the St. Lawrence River, in the middle of a highly populated residential area. It is the border-crossing from NYS to Cornwall, Ontario. The day-to-day security provided by an unarmed Mohawk security has always been enough.

We are the most policed people in the world. Almost 20 U.S. and Canadian enforcement agencies traverse our community. Canada has two alternatives: to peacefully operate on our land or to move the customs building and compound off the island.

After construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway and the International Bridge in the 1950s the customs station was placed on the island. We tried but could not stop it. A commitment was made that armed guards would never be put in the middle of our neighborhood, which we saw as dangerous for both Customs and Mohawks.

Mohawks have not fallen for this trap. Daily disagreements have been instigated against Mohawks who must pass through the checkpoint on a daily basis. There have been serious injuries, hospitalizations, charges and assaults. So far there have been no fatalities. There has been a steady increase in racial profiling and slurs direct at us sanctioned by Canada. Incidents are being provoked to justify armed guards.

Hundreds of complaints have been filed with the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne, Canada Justice Department and the Canadian Human Rights Commission. No peaceful resolution has come forward.

In an August 2002 report co-commissioned by Transport Canada and the Mohawks, 70% of border crossers are Akwesasne Mohawks. It is adjacent to a bus stop for children, recreational fields, play area, large number of homes, the only convenience store, several small businesses and other features of a well populated and highly trafficked area. We need to visit our family and friends, get to work or school, attend health, social, cultural, recreational gatherings and shop or conduct business. Next to the customs children slide during the winter on the hills. People ride horses and walk in the open spaces. Children play volleyball, basketball and lacrosse. Recently the border patrol perpetrated a high speed chase where 3 people were burnt to death at the cross roads. Violence and death is their business!

Guns are for killing! They must be banned in this corridor. On Saturday, May 8th 2009, the Mohawks marched from the U.S. Port of Entry, across the Three Nations Bridge to the City of Cornwall. We called for a peaceful solution and a meeting with the Minister of Public Safety, Peter Van Loan, and the Mohawk representatives.

Grandmothers who marched at the "You are on Indian Land" demonstration in December 20, 1968, carried their grandchildren across the same bridge in 2009. They reminisced as they passed the checkpoint. One proudly looked in the face of the customs officers and said, "You're not going to intimidate me. I have never lost my spirit to resist. I will stand my legal ground no matter what you do to me."

Canada and U.S. are watching to see if we give up. We are one of the first groups to stand up to guns, brute force, harassment and attempts at totalitarianism. Friends from surrounding U.S. and Canadian communities honked their horns in support. U.S. policies are followed to turn Canada into an armed camp. We say, "No, you will not terrorize us, Americans and Canadians into submission on Great Turtle Island".

Officers know we are a peaceful people. Customs officers need a reason to draw their guns and shoot us. We are being entrapped into defending ourselves. The result could be deadly. If we heard that, "someone was just shot at the border", our families would pour out of nearby homes in minutes. Canada is setting up a scenario to justify cross-Canada martial law.

Mainstream corporate media did not cover this historic event. The real media are word of mouth, personal contacts of the people through phone calls, emails, communication between communities, friends and relatives around the world.

By law Canada must fully consult us and a majority of us must agree on whether anyone can set up an armed camp in the middle of our community. This is the law. They know we would not agree to this.

There are numerous similar crossings in highly populated areas. Canada cannot justify its actions in Akwesasne.

There is no history of violence in Canada against its citizens. In the U.S. most agencies are armed. At the U.S. border crossing numerous incidents of intimidation with guns, shootings and some fatalities have occurred. In Canada enforcement agents are also being taught to shoot to kill, whether we are armed or not and even if there is no reason to pull us over. Previously there was less corruption among government agents. Today they are being given a free hand to kill and to have guns to protect their illegal businesses as border guards. They can and are stopping us at their own discretion for no reason at all. They take us to confined areas where no one can see their cruelty. No surveillance equipment is inside to record their savagery. They're getting away with murder!

A long time ago the Rotino'shonni:owne Iroquois decided to stop conflict against our nations by burying our weapons of war. The colonists agreed to this. Their acts of aggression violate their agreement to live on our land in peace. In effect, they are being given a license to try to kill us with impunity.

Contact: Chief Wesley Benedict 613-551-2573; Larry King 613-551-1930; Chief Joe Lazore 613-551-5292. Next unity march is May 29th. Meet at the cross roads on Cornwall Island at 10:30 am. March starts at noon. www.nationtalk.ca

LET THEM EAT CAKE, SAID MARIE ANTOINETTE. TRUE BELIEVERS & MASS MOVEMENTS

MNN. May 8, 2009. As African songwriter, Bob Marley, told us in effect: “If you don’t know where you are coming from, how can you know where you are going to?” The early 1950s and 1960s writers explored mass consciousness, mass movements and fanaticism. Marshall McLuhan worried that the media and advertising would take advantage of mass consciousness. He thought the “global village” would bring humanity’s tribal memory under the electronic control of a single consciousness. He thought that individuals could be manipulated, exploited and controlled in a group. [1964 www.leaderu.com]. How right he was.

Eric Hoffer wrote in the “True Believer”, 1951, that mass movements can be created to serve the evil purposes of a few. People could be recruited, particularly the fanatical, driven, unreasonable, those convinced of their rightness, infallibility and inevitability of their cause. To draw them in, the lives of the poor, misfits, outcasts, adolescents, selfish, bored and seekers of redemption have to be made miserable, insecure and hopeless. www.mekong.net/hoffer.htm] With the collapse of the economy and social programs, people are overcome with insecurity and uncertainty. They are seeking substitutes and made ripe for the picking.

Along comes an opportunistic charismatic leader or figurehead who has all the answers. He promises refuge from their anxieties and meaningless lives. He will free them from their worthless selves to become the masters of the human race. Hitler told the Germans, “If you follow me, you are going to control the world for a thousand years”. They are convinced that they are a mighty people. They know, when they are broken down, they are meek and frightened individuals.

The charismatic tells them to look over the horizon to a glorious future, not at the present. In today’s pyramid sales schemes only the top guy makes all the money. Those below do all the work and make a pittance. Eventually they burn out.

A mass movement needs men of words, the fanatics and the practical men of action. After a while the fanatic keeps groping for extremes which is provided by the leader[s].

He subconsciously or directly tells people their lives today are dire and they have no future. People don't really want to be free because this means taking responsibility. They want to hand their fate over to some other ephemeral entity that has taken over their lives. A mass movement gives them an excuse to hate, bully, torture, murder and betray without shame and remorse. They accept a big brother who watches everything they do. It's as though they are marching towards some mythical goal like Dorothy who was seeking to find the Wizard of Oz. She found out he was a deceiving imp mouthing great words through a loudspeaker.

They will be freed from the created meaninglessness of their lives. Their short comings and self condemnation is transferred onto hatred of others by doing grave injustices against them. They have to infect themselves with hate toward an identifiable group of people by hurting them. The masses are brought together to direct their anger at one scapegoat. It's like a school of sharks who smell blood, or a group of hyenas who surround their prey. Tormenting people satisfies their blood lust. They feel reassured when they see our downfall.

An enemy is created as a scapegoat. Unifying agents are hatred, imitation, persuasion, coercion, action, suspicion and intolerance to dissent. It suppresses their inadequacy, worthlessness, guilt and other shortcomings. Their self-contempt, helplessness and cowardice are taken out on others. They are driven by feelings of personal inadequacy, a desire to tear down others or to rise into higher levels of the totalitarian hierarchy.

Presently there seems to be a campaign to attack the "guardians of the eastern door" of Great Turtle Island, the Mohawks. There is an invasion by these forces of European-spawned fanatical movements. We, the flint people, are the first to meet this onslaught. Our way of dealing with these forces is by calm, reasonable and analytical weighing of all issues before arriving at a consensual democratic decision over the council fire of the Rotino'shonni:onwe, Iroquois.

In the new world order, the people will become like little mice running on a treadmill to nowhere. The war lords are gaining control through consolidation of politics, commerce, military, police, media and colonial agents of change such as new age psychobabble movements. This mishmash of beliefs catches people who are insecure in their ideas and identity.

When the French got fed up with the gluttony and brutality of their aristocracy and royalty, they killed them. Then a dictator came in, Napoleon. The people handed themselves over to him.

Motivations for mass movements are interchangeable: religious, nationalist and class-based. They use the same tactics: sacrifice themselves and others for the future goals; devalue the past and present; and escape by creating an imaginary self and joining a movement.

Cynical mass movements around the world are based on secret plans by a select group of elites based on lies and threats. By the time the people find out, it's too late. They have been destroyed or taken over. They are dispossessed and made to feel they have no hope unless they follow the leader who is taking them to a destiny of destruction or enslavement.

Hoffer says that after a fanatic destroys his enemies, he makes enemies of his cohorts. The problem with hatred is that the participants lose those values they at one time set out to defend.

The true believer can be dangerous and deadly, especially when they have nothing to lose. The only way to defeat the true believer of a false cause is to tell the truth about how deceived they are.

"NEW AGE" PSYCHOBABBLE BEING SWALLOWED BY A FEW

MNN. May 3, 2009. A near death experience can cause tremendous fear and trauma and could overrule a person's will. Such pressure is part of a colonial strategy to break us down. Most resist. A few give in.

The NAFTA Super Highway from Mexico is coming through the Mohawk community of Akwesasne. In June 2009 non-native guards, who have shown hatred for Mohawks, are being handed guns to intimidate and try to exercise absolute power over us in the middle of our community. RCMP, OPP, military and para military agencies are building huge facilities nearby. Cornwall Ontario will be a center for police activity. Nullifying resistance by Mohawks has been a longtime target.

Over the last couple of decades a new age ideology has beset Onowaregeh, Great Turtle Island. This new age movement is a tool to bring in one world religion for expediency's sake. It's a mishmash of Hinduism, Buddhism, Ghandi, Kabbalah, Scientology, crystals, reincarnation, Raelians, channeling, fortune tellers, seers and whatever else can be thrown into the pot. It's sprinkled with Indigenous philosophy to give it credibility. This new age religion with feathers, beads and buckskins is being made palpable to Indigenous and others.

This false ideology is geared to direct the masses into the new age of one world government, one religion and one economic system to be run by war lords and their criminal handlers. People have to be indoctrinated to become obedient and to subdue their reasoning faculties.

The Kaianerehkowa, the Great Law of the Indigenous people is opposite to the new age doctrine. Our philosophy is based on a powerful relationship with the natural world. It strengthens our will, which is the watch dog of humanity. Nothing is supposed to enter that can harm, mislead or control us. This is the basis of democracy and can head off fascism. True democracy is equality and everyone has a voice.

To disarm the will, drugs, alcohol, hypnosis, incantations, spells, rituals, seances and trances help nullify the ability to say "no". Eventually we can lose charge over our "doorkeeper", our will, so that another mental process can be inserted inside us. It tells us, "I am your friend, your spirit guide, your master. Follow me and I can make you immortal". It is disempowering. An undercurrent is the message, "I am strong and I can kill you".

U.S. President Thomas Jefferson got the Quakers to help Handsome Lake whose will was overrun by alcoholism and visions. He started a revitalization movement based on these principles to mess up the Rotino'shonni:onwe, Iroquois.

Indigenous history and traditions have been cleverly mixed with new age concepts. We are told that other people inhabited Great Turtle Island before us, that some of us are extra terrestrials, that everybody should be vegetarians, that one world government is necessary and that, if we want peace, we shouldn't be critical.

The Raelians say that our human creators from space brought love and peace through a combination of spirituality, sensuality and science. Scientists from another planet created all life on earth using DNA!! The extra-terrestrials will come back to check on us.

We are being told to forgive no matter how bad it is. They don't suggest change. The victims become confused and weak so that all political, economic, social and military levels of power controlling society can be overtaken.

During the time of the drug culture, Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau brought in new agers to run Indian Affairs in Canada. He had visited eastern mystics for enlightenment. Indigenous organizations were infiltrated. Healers and Elders were trained and sent among us and even among the non-native youth. It died out for a while.

After the 1990 Mohawk Oka crisis Indian Affairs set up the Kumik Lodge to train and certify a new slew of healers. It taught Pan-Indian cleansing, healing circles, sweat lodges and confessions. They went into our communities and jails to learn more about us.

Today new age covens are being formed in some of our communities. Ceremonies and meetings are frequently held. CDs on universal teachings are watched, studied and distributed. Some followers say they can't move products or travel unless the stars are in the right place. The adherents call themselves "universal" persons, humans of another time or reality. Some have given up all their documents like driver's licenses, birth certificates, Indian cards, medical cards, membership in their community, nation and confederacy. Psyches are being diverted. Their will has been weakened. We don't know if they are giving up their properties or bank accounts.

Background: The new age movement ensnares susceptible people that are attracted by false spirituality, becoming "ascended masters" and speaking with "spirit guides". Critic, Lee Penn, says: "New age is a pot pourri of beliefs and practices that fall outside of all faiths". [www.leepenn.org/LP-NewAgeIndex]

According to astrology, crystals, weird workshops and psycho babble, the earth will be cleansed of those who refuse to evolve. Traditional morality and families will disappear.

See list of big shots in the movement. At Maurice Strong's Manitou retreat in Colorado, treatment includes everything being taken away from the follower to suck out the core of their being. Under the guise of meditation and sensory deprivation, they are confined into a small space to strip their identity. A low protein diet is part of this.

Barbara Hubbard says: "Your highest spiritual beings are telling you to access to an inner teacher... that through "initiation" you can transform yourself into an "ascended master". Once our bodies, minds and souls are drained dry by free sex and trafficking with the spirit world, we ought to chose to die. In fact, it seems unethical and foolish to live on".

These new age charismatic movements can affect participants in adverse ways. Intensely held religious or quasi-religious beliefs and ideology are imposed on members. They are promised emotional well-being and a sense of direction. They can't make a free choice to leave the group. They are pressured to recruit new members, break with families and friends and to socialize mainly with the group.

On March 28, 1997, in Rancho Santa Fe, California, thirty-nine young men and women of Heaven's Gate killed themselves. They believed that their human bodies were physical containers that had to be discarded so that their souls could be transported to a new level of being. Their souls were to meet up with a UFO that was trailing the Hale-Bopp comet passing Earth at that time. In their new plane of existence, they would inhabit new bodies and travel through different galaxies. The charismatic leader was an ex-minister who called himself Bo after Bo-peep who shepherded sheep. He was seen as an omnipotent godlike authority that diminished their anxiety, depression and alienation. Members were recruited personally or through the internet.

The Kaianerehkowa goes back to the beginning of time when we started thinking. We have our own stories about our origins here on Onowaregeh. We should remain with our own principles. This new age has nothing to do with us. We sent away our younger brothers because of their insane behavior and they came back worse than before. Some of us may drift away for a time from what a true human being is. For most of us, our will is our plan for survival. Everything goes back to our connection with the natural world.

ARMED BORDER GUARDS AT AKWESASNE? VERY VERY DANGEROUS!

MNN. May 2, 2009. The behind the scenes dictators are slowly tightening the screws. A boa constrictor starts by wrapping itself around you, gradually starts to constrict, tightens almost without notice and then strangles you until you're dead. The plan is to hypnotize us into accepting this death hold without resisting.

For the next month Mohawks of Akwesasne will be protesting colonial Canadian border guards arming themselves with Beretta 9 mm handguns in the middle of our community. They hope to start on June 1. Akwesasne is on both sides of the foreign Canada-U.S. border and home to the whole community regardless of this "imaginary line". We never gave our consent for these carpet baggers to carry weapons in our midst to protect their illegal extortion business. Their actions constitute a violation of our law and international law.

All three band and tribal councils set up by Canada and the U.S. took part in the rally, the Mohawk Council of Akwesasne (MCA), the St. Regis Mohawk Tribe and the Mohawk Nation Council of Chiefs.

Chris Kealey of the Canada Border Services Agency said the guards are being armed "for the protection of our officers because ... they are left vulnerable". To what? The number of attacks against Mohawks has been drastically increasing. Defensive conflicts by the Mohawks has always been infrequent.

Kanatakon (St. Regis, Que.) District Chief Larry King believes the incidents between the CBSA and members of Akwesasne are "too few and far between" to justify the weapons.

We know we have to stop at the border. Kimberly Jacobs of Cornwall Island said: "Some of the border guards are respectful, while others are intimidating." Her friend, who crosses at least once a day, has been pulled over six times in the last month for random inspection. A woman was strip searched by border officers without a good reason. Without guns they can already isolate us, lock us up, hold us for hours for no reason and almost kill us. They accuse us of just about everything including "suspecting" us of having drugs, guns and whatever. It's scary when they take us to the back of the shed. With guns, these power hungry anti-Mohawk lunatics will have unquestioned power to intimidate, strip search and falsely charge us. After investigations most of the bogus CBSA complaints against us are dropped.

The Akwesasne situation is being hyped up to justify arming their border guards across Canada. With guns they can more easily intimidate and threaten anyone, especially Indigenous they greatly dislike. Racial slurs by guards are common.

"We don't feel it creates a safer environment, putting guns in their hands," said Cornwall Island (Kawehnoke) District Chief Wesley Benedict.

A letter was sent to Prime Minister Stephen Harper to have meetings with Public Safety Minister Peter Van Loan and his predecessor Stockwell Day over a year ago. There has been no response. We hear that the European settler experience at the border is completely different. They are often waved through without harassment.

Threatening, beating and jailing people are becoming common in the U.S. It's meant to create a climate of intimidation, fear and violence. It looks like Canada doesn't want to be distinct from the U.S. anymore. The police want authority over people through force and threats. Why are guns essential for the corporatist agents? For hundreds of years British Bobbies never had guns. The crime rate was low. When they armed, crimes and dangerous situations escalated. The level of fear was raised in both the police and the public. The cops were no longer part of society and started to operate under their own rules.

To condition people to be controlled by a police state, everyone has to be harassed constantly. The cops have powers to do anything they want with impunity. They divide people against each other.

Democracy and freedom are slowly disappearing. Few appear to be fighting back. Many are fighting each other. It took the Germans about 15 years to produce the police state, to condition people to accept totalitarian rule, to be subdued and to have their spirit broken.

In the past there were two opposing forces at work, democracy against totalitarianism. Today there is only one ideology, the new world order of money, power and authority over everybody by a few.

The plan is to take over the human race, eliminate the weak and put a few rich masters in control. The melt down of the world economy is giving them the opportunity to carry out their agenda.

Politics, military, business, educational, professionals and governing institutions have been taken over systematically piece by piece. It is being done subtly through propaganda, books, entertainment, education, enticements and rewards until everybody is sucked in. The disease goes inward. People feel afraid, like we are being cornered and will soon be eliminated. We don't know what to do. We become defensive. We don't trust anybody. We think everybody is part of this conspiracy. Children are asked to spy and report on their parents. Everybody is grasping at anything to find a way out.

As Louis Karonhiatajeh Hall warned that when we experience these strange occurrences, "Don't get pulled into it". Don't go to fortune tellers and seers. The elite want us to be pulled into this bottomless abyss and to be directed to unseen esoteric waters. They deceptively call themselves ordained global guardians. They deliberately try to confuse us. Now they want the susceptible, the messed up and the strong minds to be labeled according to their red, green and amber new world order categories to be dealt with accordingly. We have to look at everything with an analytical and questioning mind according to the philosophy of the Indigenous people. Indigenous, U.S. and Canadian people – everybody knows that guns at the border are bad!
